

PRELIMINARY	2
Sponsors	8
Corporate research respondents	14
NPO research respondents	16
From the publisher	18
Guest foreword: Professor Jonathan Jansen	20
About the book	22
ONE THE STATE OF CSI IN 2011	30
Corporate social investment dashboard	32
The state of CSI in 2011	34
Development focus and activities	37
Funding flows	40
Governance	44
Partnerships	46
Monitoring, evaluation and communication	47
CSI budgets	56
TWO TALKING POINTS	60
Maximising the positive social impact of CSI funds	62
Creating shared value through employee community involvement	66
Aveng Group: Volunteering for lasting change	70
VWSA: Connecting employees to communities	72
Collaboration: Scaling up networks for development impact	76
Absa, Engen and Woolworths: Corporate partnerships for increased impact	79
NPO governance: What NPOs and grantmakers need to know	84
Sustainability in challenging times: How NPOs can respond	88
Talking development: CSI in the media	94

THREE PROGRAMME OVERVIEWS 100

Barloworld Trust: A catalyst for positive change	102
Optimum Coal: Transformation beyond compliance	103
Procter & Gamble: Purpose-inspired social investment	104
Shell South Africa: Powering community upliftment	105
Ernst & Young: Putting people at the heart of CSR	106
Group Five: Addressing community needs	108
M-Net: Projects that show M-Net cares	110
MTN SA Foundation: Meaningful impact through an integrated approach	112
Old Mutual Foundation: Creating a link between social development and business	114
PetroSA: Strategic social investment	116
SAP Africa: Fostering prosperous communities	120
Standard Bank: Delivering systemic change	122
Tiger Brands: Towards sustainable food solutions	124
Tsb Sugar: Leveraging partnerships for rural developments	126
Woolworths Trust: Integrating CSI initiatives	128

FOUR DEVELOPMENT SECTOR FOCUS 134

Development sector funding overview	136
Education	138
Improving South Africa's school performance: models that work	146
AngloGold Ashanti: An integrated approach	150
HCI Foundation: Investing in ECD	152
Liberty: Education is key to South Africa's sustainability	153
Murray & Roberts: ECD – investing from the start	154
Rio Tinto and the Palabora Foundation: Growing excellence	156
McCarthy Group: Rallying around literacy	158
NPC-Cimpor: Oceans come alive	159
Arthur Preston: Digital literacy for bright futures	160

FOUR DEVELOPMENT SECTOR FOCUS continued

Social and community development	166
Hollard Foundation: Investing in vulnerable children	171
Health	174
Community health workers: Primary healthcare's new backbone	178
MBSA: A systemic approach to HIV and Aids	182
Dr Gilles van Cutsem: The intertwined problem of HIV and TB	186
Environment	188
Anton Cartwright: Climate change, poverty and development	190
Food security and agriculture	194
Enterprise development	198
Shanduka Foundation: Developing entrepreneurs	202
Social enterprise and its place in development	204
Arts and culture	212
Tersia Mdunge: Fine-tuning an established art intervention	215
Sports development	216
Housing and living conditions	218
Safety and security	219

DSP

a better picture

Damien Schumann, a photographer/ installation artist, who's work is inspired by contemporary social issues and human justice. The essence of his art does not only lie in the creation of imagery and objects, but also in the impact it has on its viewers. Considered a visual anthropological study, Damien strives to produce pro-active work for advocacy, communications and social mobilisation purposes.

www.dspgallery.com

www.dspdairy.com
damien@dspgallery.com

073 567 3731